THE BEE HIVE Our PARIS HATS ...PATTERN HATS

Have met with a flattering reception. Patrons wonder that we can sell 'em at such modest prices. The secret, by the way, lies in our buying them in such large quantities and from first hands. All declare the styles unique and absolutely proper. No two trimmed alike. Prices from $1.00 to $5.00, but worth fully 30% to 40% more.

A COMPLETE DRESS GOODS STOCK.

We believe we are justified in stating that our Dress Goods stock is now complete in every detail. There's nothing in woolen or cotton fabrics that Fashion decrees in vogue for spring of 1900 but what you will find it here. Venetians for the tailor-made gowns at 50c, 59c and $1.25, all colors. Plaid homespun, 40 inches wide, worth fully 75c, our price 59c. Golf plaids from $1 to $2.25 per yd. The new stripes, in cloths of all wool, 59c to $1 a yard. Sybeline Plaids 30c a yard. The Black Dress Goods stock is a department in itself. Crepons from $1 to $2.75 a yd. Gonsalva Cloth, a gem of the weaver's art, 54 inches wide, $1 a yd. Black Mercerized Brocades that are sold elsewhere at 40c are priced here at 20c, and a host of other fabrics that lack of space prevents mentioning.

$12.50 TAILOR-MADE SUITS FOR $8.49.

We ask you but to inspect these suits and judge of their merits for yourselves. They are made of all-wool Venetian Cloths, jacket lined with silk and skirt with best grade percaleine. We guarantee a proper fit with each suit. Our special price $8.49.

HER..... MAJESTY'S Corset! MAKES PERFECT FORMS.

If you are stout this Corset will reduce the hips and abdomen to graceful proportions; if you are slender it will round you out and give you a shapely figure. As a form maker Her Majesty's Corset has not its equal in the whole world. It adds a hundred per cent. to the appearance of many who wear it—does it, too, without requiring injurious tight lacing, which is a great deal in its favor. Ask to see Her Majesty's.

A SADIE, SADIE FATE.

This is the tale of Peter Gunn, Who read and talked of "kopje;" Also of Cronje and the Boers Until he could not stoppe.

He tackled a "je" to every word, Or nearly every oneje, Until his friends and family Wished war had ne'er begunje.

At evening, he was not content To sit at home and talkje, But he would ask his wife if she "Would like to take a walkje."

He hired a man to scoop the snow Which lay upon his lawnje, And paralyzed his little boy By saying, "Come here, Johnje."

He bristled o'er with news of war, Said "Buller flew the coopje," And backed "ay saying that "Old Whisk... in the soupje."

He asked a friend if she would sing "In words of tuncful soundje, The ballad, 'When You Have No Coin You Needn't Come Aroundje!'"

And thus he went from bad to worse, Until, what do you thinkje? He tried to drown Great Britain's woes, Likewise his own, in drinkje.

And now they have him in a place Locked in a padded cellje, Where every day that awful "je" With all his words he'll yellje.

Take heed, take heed—this simple tale Should warn you every oneje—Lest you should tempt the fate that met Our poor friend, Peter Gunnje.

SOLICITING COMMITTEE.

One Appointed For the Board of Trade at Last Night's Meeting.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Board of Trade last night a Committee on Soliciting funds was appointed, the object of which is to see every merchant in town and have him give a certain sum every month for the next twelve, beginning with April 1st, 1900.

Unless the Committee meets with proper response and a substantial assistance the Board of Trade feels it cannot continue.

All should remember the efforts of those who are members of the Directory are given free. It is from a desire to help the city at large that these men meet from time to time, plan, arrange and execute for the general good, and it is but just that this appeal meet with a quick acceptance.

The death of the Board of Trade means a return to the rut of sloth, from which this organization has pulled the old town the past year.

We cannot believe there is a business man in this city who will not concur in this statement; therefore accepting this premise the next step according to logic is to draw the application: self-benefit to the individual, which naturally brings the much sought for conclusion—the good of the whole.

After La Grippe—What! Usually a racking cough and a general feeling of weakness. Foley's Honey and Tar is guaranteed to cure the "grippe cough" and make you strong and well. J. Jas. Wood & Son and Armstrong & Co.

CREMATED AT CINCINNATI.

James Garrett Wall Died Tuesday at Cynthia—Well Known Here.

Mr. James Garrett Wall died at Cynthia Tuesday night, aged 65.

He had been an invalid all his life. Shortly after his birth he began to develop a swelling of the head just above the brows and his head became twice the normal size. His limbs were also crippled. With the enlargement came an abnormal brain, and notwithstanding these conditions he was one of the smartest men of his town.

He wrote for newspapers and magazines and was an expert accountant.

He had two hobbies, aside from which he was mentally perfect. He fancied that he owned the ground upon which the depot at Cynthia was built, and that the plat in the Fifth Ward, deeded to Maysville by his grandfather, Mr. Samuel January, for park purposes, was his also. This is the quarter square of ground at Third and Union streets, recently inclosed and beautified by trees, etc., and to recover which Mr. Wall had made several unsuccessful appeals to the Board of Councilmen.

Deceased was a brother of Mr. Richard M. Wall, the well-known cigar manufacturer, formerly of this city, but now of Cincinnati.

For fear that, owing to his peculiar affliction, medical experts might make way with his body, it was cremated at Cincinnati at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and the ashes returned to Cynthia for burial.

BEAUTIFUL WEDDING.

Mr. James M. Alexander and Miss Bessie Foster Childs Married Yesterday.

Yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Childs, occurred the marriage of their third daughter, Bessie Foster, to Mr. James Milton Alexander, the Rev. John Barbour, D.D., of the First Presbyterian Church performing the ceremony.

About fifty friends of the contracting party were witnesses. These in afternoon reception toilets were just the frame for the pretty picture soon to be set.

The parlors were simply dressed with potted plants and lighted with various colored lights from lamps and candles, which, vying with strains from the piano and violin, gave the conventional setting for a marriage.

Promptly at the hour named the door from the hall opened, and the groom, attended by Mr. Earl Newell, approached the Minister. Following came the sister, Miss Lydia Duke Childs, bearing the bride, who was the center of attraction, and well she could be. "Fromerle" measured their steps to the Minister's presence, and as the groom and his best man stepped apart the bride assumed her rightful place to henceforth lean upon the man whom she has chosen to be her life partner. The service was very pretty and impressively rendered, that beautiful song, "O! Promise Me," accompanying it. The Benediction said, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander faced the company for congratulations and good wishes, which were given with a heartiness and fervor delightful to witness. At 4:30 the bride and groom and their families drove to the latter's mother's home, where a reception was enjoyed last night, and this morning, on a farm adjoining his home that was, Mr. Alexander will install his bride and together begin their honeymoon, which we hope will last till death them does part.

The bride wore a dainty white organ-die, the waist of which was shirred exquisitely; the neck ended in a stock, and the half sleeves met pearl undressed kid gloves; the skirt was demi-train and ruffled high, while from the apex of her form the shimmering veil fell in waving loveliness to the hem of her gown. She was very lovely, and as a bride, which tries the virtues of the maiden as no other event in her life can, possessed herself with that dignity, graciousness and womanly bearing which have made her very dear to a large circle of friends.

The groom wore the conventional afternoon wedding dress and comported himself with that visible sign of happiness which clearly spoke how cognizant he was of the prize won by Divine sanction entrusted to his care.

A large number of presents were sent them—mirrors, lamps, bric-a-brac, clock, silver and damask, chairs and money—which shall silently remind them of their wedding day and of choice friends who gave gifts to attest their love and blessing.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75 cents. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Mr. Joe Lee, who has been night clerk at the Central Hotel for some time, will leave in a few days for Cincinnati, to accept a position at the Niagara Hotel.

Does It Pay To Buy Cheap?
A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do to get a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Booth's German Syrup." It not only treats and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. For sale by J. C. Peacor.

Frank Lisle Taylor, despite his high-sounding name, is a ten-year-old coon of the Toughville class. He belonged to a trio which has been pilfering chiefly in the West End for some time. A few days ago he got into Phister Wallace's dragnet, and yesterday that officer took him to Lexington, where he will reside three years at the State Reform School.

The Best Blood Purifier.
The blood is constantly being purified by the lungs, liver and kidneys. Keep these organs in a healthy condition and the bowels regular and you will have no need of a blood purifier. For this purpose there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, one dose of them will do you more good than a dollar bottle of the best blood purifier. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore.
